

15:05 1 THE CLERK: EP-12-CR-1351, United States versus 2 Charles Marquez.

3 MR. NEWAZ: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Rifian Newaz
4 and Steve Spitzer for the government.

5 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

6 MR. VASQUEZ: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Joseph 7 Vasquez and Ruben Nunez for Mr. Marquez. And Judge, 8 Mr. Marquez, again, is asking us to make an announcement of not 9 ready and request a continuance orally from the court, having 10 reviewed your ruling earlier today.

11 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, if I could speak.

12 THE COURT: Of course.

13 THE DEFENDANT: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

15 THE DEFENDANT: I am going to be discussing Rule 32, 16 sentencing in criminal -- sentencing and judgment, the criminal 17 rule book. What I wanted to address the court, first of all, 18 was an issue that I had a couple of months ago when I was 19 assigned a new presentence investigator. There was a conflict 20 of interest that arose. I spoke to Mr. Vasquez and Mr. Nunez 21 about that matter.

22 The presentence investigator came, I believe it was on 23 a Monday, with Mr. Vasquez and addressed me about conducting a 24 presentence investigation. Of course, after everything that I 25 have been through, like I said, Mr. Vasquez had not been 15:07 1 diligent in coming to visit me at county jail. And what was 2 happening is that, see, I had several issues because if you -- 3 as you know, this is a very complex case. The complexity of 4 this case, it's enormous. And, first of all, the point that I

5 brought out to the attorney was is that, I said, Look, I said, 6 this is the first time I have come across -- I met you, that 7 you have come before me. And I told him that I wanted to ask 8 him to come back on another day.

9 He very rudely and very sarcastically told me, You 10 know what, we are either going to do it today, or we are not 11 going to do it at all. He goes, What I will do is just get the 12 information from the court, and we will go from there. We will 13 proceed. And so I said your -- I said, Sir, whatever you got 14 to do, you got to do, okay. But I'm just letting you know that 15 I'm not prepared. I need to prepare before I can speak to you, 16 before my -- with my attorney. So I said, What I want to do is 17 I want to speak with him about issues that are going to affect 18 my sentencing. And at that time, he told me, he goes, Well, he 19 goes, I'm telling you right now, we are either going to do it 20 right now, or we are not going to do it at all.

21 So that was the only time that I ever spoke to him, 22 okay, as far as giving me an ample opportunity to prepare and 23 also to advise my attorney, from what I know, that was the only 24 time that he had spoken with Mr. Vasquez, okay. So according 25 to Rule 32, the PSR officer must conduct a presentence

15:08 1 investigation unless the court finds on the record that enables 2 it to exercise its sentencing authority. Okay. And then, of 3 course, the court explains its findings in the record.

4           There is a lot of issues with me. I have medical, 5 financial, and then, of course, everything that pertained to 6 whatever information was introduced at trial.

7           Okay. As I said again, I had advised the presentence
8 investigator, like I said, that I was not prepared beforehand 9 about the interview. I had several issues to discuss with 10 counsel before proceeding, was denied the right to interview.
11 I had and still have many issues to discuss. Okay. But with 12 whom? I asked Mr. Joseph Vasquez to recuse the PSR officer for 13 denying me my right to interview, which is a direct due process 14 violation. He never complied.

15           The court is and needs to be aware of my medical 16 issues and needs. As of today, I have not discussed with 17 anyone facilities, programs available, security for my type of 18 alleged offense. I viewed one time -- met with the PSR officer 19 one time and had or was given with the opportunity to respond 20 or ask pertinent questions regarding the report findings, okay.

21           It says: Nor was given the opportunity to make 22 objections. As the court is well aware that the defendant's 23 interest is an accurate and reliable PSR and is upmost 24 important. The PSR accompanies the defendant to the 25 correctional institution and provides background information

15:10 1 for the Bureau of Prisons' classification summary to determine 2 classification within the facility. Resolution of claims is 3 very important, if not crucial, as well as inaccuracies. The 4 purpose of promoting accuracy is defeated if the defendant is 5 unable to contest erroneous information. Not being given the 6 opportunity to properly review the PSR with counsel 7 significantly reduces the likelihood that false statements will 8 be discovered, as much of the content of the PSR will 9 ordinarily be outside the knowledge of counsel.

10 Now, without the process, how can the court make a 11 finding as to the accuracy of the challenged factual 12 proposition or determine that no reliance will be placed on 13 that proposition at the time of sentencing? It is possible 14 that the bureau commission, in the course of reaching a 15 decision on such matters as to the institution assignment, 16 eligibility for programs, or computation of salient factors, 17 will place a great reliance upon factual assertions in the 18 report which are, in fact, untrue and which may remain 19 unchallenged at the time of sentencing, because the defendant 20 or his counsel deems the error unimportant in the sentencing 21 court, the context.

22 It is -- it is vital to communicate to the 23 correctional agencies the defendant's challenges to the 24 information in the PSR and the resolution of the challenges.
25 Disclosure is necessary to the defendant as it is counsel.

15:12 1 Deviation from the process results in a fundamental defect, 2 which inherently results in a complete miscarriage of justice 3 or an omission inconsistent with the rudimentary demands of 4 fair procedure.

5 It is the court's duty to assert -- assure that 6 relevant factors are considered and accurately resolved.
7 Sentencing is the most critical stage of criminal proceedings
8 and is, in effect, the bottom line for the defendant. Such a 9 grave stage of the criminal proceedings could deprive the 10 accused material valuable to his defense, but most important, 11 his very liberty. Case law, which has indicated that requests 12 for counsel by the defendant to be present, should be honored 13 by the PSR officer. That's -- and in the courts, I am quoting 14 U.S. v. Herrera-Figueroa, 918 F.2d 1430, Ninth Circuit (1990).

15 And for the defendant to meet with the PS [sic]
16 officer concerning objections to this report. The bureau
17 relies primarily on the PSR. Rule 32 was intended to guard 18 against adverse consequences of the statements in the PSR that 19 the court may have found to be false and is designed to protect 20 the defendant of false allegations. Any deviation from Rule 32 21 will compromise the integrity of the process.

22 THE COURT: Anything else on that issue?

23 MR. VASQUEZ: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 THE DEFENDANT: The other issue that I wanted to bring 15:14 1 up, Your Honor, is going to be the noncompliance from the 2 government to disclose all discovery. I have discussed with my 3 attorneys that, as of today, the government has failed to 4 comply and sanctions need to be imposed because of the fact 5 that there are phone calls, jailhouse phone calls dealing with 6 Blanca Gabriela Guzman and Hermelinda Cordova Perez that were 7 never fully disclosed to the defendant or his counsel. We have 8 had --

9 THE COURT: Mr. Marquez, actually, your lawyers 10 actually --

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: -- filed a very well-drafted motion for 13 new trial --

14 THE DEFENDANT: Uh-huh.

15 THE COURT: -- in which they addressed that. And I 16 made a decision on that. So you don't have to bring that up 17 again because it has been fully addressed.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

19 THE COURT: So is there anything else that you need to 20 tell me that you haven't told me already? I heard you --

21 THE DEFENDANT: That's it.

22 THE COURT: -- about the presentence report, and I am 23 going to address that in just a moment. But I just want to 24 make sure that you are given your chance to say everything you 25 have to say. So is there anything else?

15:15 1 THE DEFENDANT: Not at this moment that deals with 2 this particular issue.

3 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. Thank you very much.

4 Mr. Vasquez, anything else that you want to add on to 5 what your client just said?

6 MR. VASQUEZ: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Nunez?

8 MR. NUNEZ: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you very much.

10 Mr. Newaz, any reply?

11 MR. NEWAZ: Sure, Your Honor. Quite frankly, the 12 defendant was given more than fair chances to be interviewed.
13 He actually got a second probation officer assigned to this 14 case. I believe the court actually said on the record that you 15 did not believe that Ms. Ronquillo did anything wrong or had 16 any bias. But just out of an overabundance of caution to make 17 Mr. Marquez feel better, you assigned yet another probation 18 officer. He was given opportunity after opportunity after 19 opportunity to provide what really would amount to statements 20 that would simply help him or help the court learn about his 21 background, and he chose not to do that.

22 He is trying to delay this case, as he has been for 23 basically the entire time that we have had this case. The 24 original sentencing was in February. It has been an additional 25 six months. We believe he has had more than enough time to 15:16 1 have gone over the PSR, and the PSR adequately reflects 2 everything that the court needs to be aware of.

3 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, in regards to that --

4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5 THE DEFENDANT: The -- what the prosecutor just said 6 is part of his tactic as he has been using all along, because 7 of the fact that I was assigned two -- I was assigned a new 8 attorney in January. Okay. The complexity of the case, this 9 is -- we are talking over 13,000 pages. For the prosecutor to 10 make this kind of allegation, it is erroneous, such as this 11 whole case. He has got no factual backing-up on that, other 12 than allegations that he -- that he brought into this.

13 What I want to say is that Mr. Vasquez, we have had on 14 several occasions proceedings regarding his conduct, his lack 15 of attention on my case. I have no control over that, okay.
16 And for Mr. Newaz to make that comment is absurd. It's 17 irrelevant. And not only that, but the bottom line is is that 18 I can only do what my attorney can offer me as far as 19 assistance.

20 The county jail does not have an adequate library that 21 would allow me, without Mr. Newaz or anybody else, complaining 22 of me filing motions to the court complaining of the problems
23 that I was experiencing, okay. So going back to that fact, I 24 have proved to the court that I have not had adequate 25 representation.

15:18 1 And as of this moment, like I said, there are several 2 issues that are unresolved, which are in direct violation of 3 Rule 32. Whether the prosecution believe that or not, since 4 they had their show prepared and lies brought into this court, 5 that that was the thing that was permitted to them. And, of 6 course, the circumstances are what they are at this moment.
7 But what I want to do is correct all the errors and prove to 8 the court in sentencing, whether it is today or a week from now 9 or a year from now, whatever, that the prosecution lied. They 10 fabricated this story, didn't follow due process, the due 11 process clause, nor the equal protection clause of the 12 14th Amendment, okay. And I will prove that in court.

13 Going back to it again, I have not been adequately 14 prepared. And I'm -- as I'm sitting here, standing here 15 telling you, I am not prepared to proceed. And like I said, 16 without that relevant information and that -- the discovery, 17 whatever I still don't have that's crucial, is going to affect 18 my sentencing.

19 So I wanted to come in here, do this one time, instead 20 of having to be shipped off, brought back again to be 21 re-sentenced in case the -- the case may be. But the bottom 22 line is is that, right now, my sentencing would be affected if 23 I was to continue. And like I said, it would deny everything 24 that Rule 32 stands for, as far as mitigating evidence to be 25 presented before the court for the purpose of sentencing.

15:19 1           THE COURT: Thank you. I find that I have enough
2 information before me from which to exercise my sentencing 3 authority. The transcript of the last hearing we had in this 4 case will reflect that I inquired about -- I inquired of 5 Mr. Marquez if there were any issues that we needed to address, 6 and there were none. And the record will further reflect that 7 that last hearing was around August 11th when we were here in 8 the government's motion to show cause.

9           With respect to his opportunity to be interviewed, the 10 presentence report accurately relays the difficulties the 11 probation department had in interviewing Mr. Marquez and his 12 refusal to cooperate, particularly that is very poignant in 13 light of the fact that I explained to him previously that there 14 was no downside to him because he didn't have to discuss with 15 the probation officer the offense conduct. And in terms of 16 inaccuracies in the offense conduct described by the probation 17 officer, I find that counsel for defendant did an outstanding 18 job at pointing objections. Specifically, counsel for 19 defendant submitted 23 objections to the presentence report.
20 To be precise, in the letter of July 28th, counsel listed 22 21 objections, but actually there were 23 because there was one 22 that was numbered number three twice. So I find that 23 Mr. Marquez' objections not to proceed are simply dilatory and 24 have no merit at all.

25           Counsel and Mr. Marquez, if you would please come to 15:22 1 the bench -- I mean, come to the podium. Mr. Vasquez, as lead 2 counsel, did you have time to go over the presentence report

3 with Mr. Marquez?

4 MR. VASQUEZ: I did, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: And did you have time to talk to him about 6 the sentencing today?

7 MR. VASQUEZ: I did, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Before -- before we proceed further, let 9 me ask -- let me ask the government, do you intend to present 10 any evidence?

11 MR. NEWAZ: No, Your Honor. I do, however, have three 12 witnesses -- or three victims who wish to read victim impact 13 statements.

14 THE COURT: Very well. So that will be --

15 MR. NEWAZ: We also had three other victim impact 16 statements for those victims who are not here. I don't know if 17 the court would allow those to be read into the record.

18 THE COURT: That's fine, because they are, in fact, 19 part of the record. The ones -- the ones that were submitted 20 already, I have read, and I will make them part of the record.

21 MR. NEWAZ: All right, Judge.

22 THE COURT: So I am going to instruct my courtroom 23 deputy to file them under seal, but to make sure that they are 24 part of the record for the court of appeals to consider, should 25 counsel deem it appropriate to point to anything about them in 15:23 1 the appellate process.

2 MR. NEWAZ: Yes, Judge.

3 THE COURT: Insofar as -- insofar as the victims that 4 wish to allocute or the reading of the additional statements, 5 that should be part of the government's allocution, so I will 6 give you the time.

7 MR. NEWAZ: All right, Judge.

8 THE COURT: I will give you the time to do that.

9 Mr. Vasquez and Mr. Nunez, I have considered all of 10 your objections. I am going to make your letter of July 28th 11 part of the record so that you preserve that on appeal. I am 12 also going to make part of the record -- it is already part of 13 the record, but I am going to ensure that it is, so that the 14 record reflects that it is part of the documents that I 15 reviewed in the process of ruling on those objections, the 16 addendum prepared by the probation officer addressing the 17 specifics of each of the objections. And I am also going to 18 make part of the record, which this one is not yet -- I am 19 going to make part of the record the letter from the government 20 lawyers to the probation officer addressing each of your 23 21 objections.

22 Mr. Vasquez, that said, all of your objections are 23 overruled.

24 The applicable sentencing guidelines in this case are 25 as follows: Total offense level 43. Criminal History

15:25 1 Category I. Guideline provisions on counts one and two, life 2 imprisonment; guideline provisions on counts four and seven, 3 120 months imprisonment capped by statute; count five, 240
4 months imprisonment capped by statute; count six, 60 months 5 imprisonment capped by statute.

6 Supervised release, counts one, two, four, and five, 7 five years to life; count six and seven, one to three years.
8 Fine, 25,000 to 250,000. Special assessment, $100 per count 9 for a total of $600.

10 Before I ask you to allocute on behalf of your client, 11 and of course, before I ask you, Mr. Marquez, to speak on your 12 own behalf, let me take care of a housekeeping matter. I 13 entered a gavel order denying defendant's motion to continue 14 the sentencing hearing filed yesterday. Obviously, the gavel 15 entry is just that, it is just an entry reflecting the denial.

16 But so the record reflects what was the reasoning 17 behind it, let me expand on that. Defendant's motion for 18 continuance filed yesterday seeks continuance of this hearing 19 to procure and obtain the services of two experts. One of 20 these experts being a forensic psychologist or psychiatrist.
21 And this forensic expert, in essence, would testify that, based 22 on his review of the discovery and trial testimony, the alleged 23 victims in this case did not testify in a matter that was 24 consistent with the victim of a sex trafficking offense and a 25 second expert, which out of respect for the sensitivities of 15:28 1 all involved, I will refer to as a gynecological expert, to 2 testify that C.V.C. did not look underage. Both of these 3 subject matters, if pertinent, would address issues dealt with 4 in the actual trial of the case or what is also commonly known 5 as the guilt or innocence part of the proceedings in this case.

6 We are past that. We are in the sentencing phase of the case.

7 At the sentencing phase of the case, mitigation 8 experts would be relevant, if any, but certainly not experts 9 that deal with issues that were considered in the guilt or 10 innocence phase. More importantly, the subject matter of both 11 of these experts, that is, the subject matter of the forensic 12 psychologist or psychiatrist and the gynecological -- the 13 gynecological expert have to do with matters that were fully 14 litigated and considered by the jury, and if anything, would 15 just simply provide cumulative testimony.

16 So that said because, number one, those experts deal 17 with credibility issues that were properly addressed by the 18 jury and, actually, are the sole province of the jury, number 19 one. And because those experts have nothing to do with 20 mitigation testimony to be offered at the sentencing hearing, 21 seeking, procuring, and obtaining that kind of expert testimony 22 is not a basis for a motion to continuance of the hearing -- of 23 the sentencing hearing.

24 Mr. Vasquez, is there anything you would like to say 25 on behalf of your client before I issue my sentence?

15:30 1 MR. VASQUEZ: Your Honor, basically, we submitted a 2 sentencing memorandum where we discussed the majority of the 3 concerns that we have regarding this sentence. I haven't been 4 involved in very many of these types of cases, but read -- if I
5 read one case, I read 100, Judge. I read about every opinion I 6 could find on these types of issues --

7 THE COURT: Mr. Vasquez, if you could redirect the 8 microphone so that I can hear you better, go ahead.

9 MR. VASQUEZ: Dealing with these issues. And the 10 sentences varied from 188 months to life. And there are 11 numerous factors that were considered in these cases. And I 12 understand that we -- you know, the act of prostitution and the 13 act of engaging in sex is harm. And these women did suffer 14 harm.

15 But in a lot of cases that I read, I mean, there was 16 physical violence. And it's real hard to argue because I 17 understand the allegations that were made in the report. But 18 in regards to the threats to the women, I don't believe there 19 are any allegations that he was -- that he hit anybody, that he 20 threatened anybody with a firearm, that he caused injury 21 himself to any of the individuals.

22 And in reading the transcripts and statements, 23 everybody had a variation of a similar statement that may or 24 may not have been given. And I guess, in reading it, one 25 concern that he really did have was them getting the telephone

15:32 1 numbers of the clients or the customers and setting up dates on 2 their own without going through him where he wouldn't make the 3 money.

4 But nobody was ever injured. And although there were 5 some allegations or statements that a car was burned down or 6 somebody was beat up, either there was no effort to support 7 that or it couldn't be found or it wasn't supported by any 8 evidence, he himself didn't harm anybody in a physical sense.
9 I know the allegations of sexual abuse and that -- and I'm not 10 saying that that's not damage, but I know the court
11 understands, I hope, what I'm trying to say. He never killed 12 anybody. He never hurt anybody physically.

13 And I think those are factors, because in a lot of 14 cases that I reviewed and that I read, those were factors that 15 were involved in the cases. And the sentences in those 16 circumstances were much lower than they are in this case. I 17 know Your Honor talked about the convictions, and there is no
18 changing that now at this point. We are at the sentencing.
19 The jury heard the evidence, and they have spoken. The court 20 considered the evidence and granted the Rule 29 motion as to 21 count three, but denied it as to the other counts. And so he 22 is here being sentenced for those charges.

23 But in regards to the statements, just that they all 24 were inconsistent and went from different directions. I guess 25 I'm trying to attack the credibility of the statements. But,

15:33 1 again, I recognize that the verdicts are already in, and I
2 understand your ruling denying our last motion for continuance.
3 He is being sentenced as a result of those verdicts. We are 4 just asking Your Honor to consider something less than life.
5 Mr. Marquez did engage in prostitution. And --

6 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I would like to backtrack.

7 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 THE DEFENDANT: The very root of the issue was 9 prostitution, coercion, enticement, and the other charges. I 10 have spoken with counsel, and this is -- this is -- 11 (Consultation off the record between Mr. Nunez and 12 Defendant Marquez)

13 THE DEFENDANT: The bottom line is we discussed 14 certain issues, and I am going to have to object to what 15 counsel just said. This is just a problem, a continued problem 16 that we are still having because there is a lack of preparation 17 here. What I want to just tell you is that --

18 THE COURT: Let me --

19 THE DEFENDANT: -- as far as prostitution, it is all 20 alleged.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Marquez, let me --

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: Let me offer a thought for you.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Uh-huh.

25 THE COURT: There is a difference between argument and 15:34 1 evidence.

2 THE DEFENDANT: I understand that. What I'm just 3 trying to do is correct the statement --

4 THE COURT: Please, please, humor me for a second.
5 Please humor me. Let me try to help you clarify something 6 here. Your lawyer is simply making an argument. The record
7 should reflect that the sentencing memorandum that Mr. Vasquez
8 and Mr. Nunez filed on your behalf, which I spent a substantial 9 amount of time reading, is solid. He wrote a very good 10 sentencing memorandum on your behalf.

11 So I just want to make sure you understand -- you 12 have -- you have clear in your mind -- and listen, and listen, 13 let me tell you another thing. Let me explain to you the way
14 the system works in a sentencing. I haven't made up my mind 15 yet. That's why it is important that whatever your lawyer has 16 to say, whatever he has to argue, let him finish first, because 17 I am going to give Mr. Nunez a chance to add to what 18 Mr. Vasquez said, and I am going to give you a chance to do the 19 same thing. Then I'm going to turn to Mr. Newaz and 20 Mr. Spitzer. I am going to do the same thing with them. And 21 then I am going to turn to the victims and do the same thing 22 with them.

23 And then after I hear all of that, I am going to make 24 a decision. So if you -- if you would be kind enough and let 25 Mr. Vasquez finish, and then I will give you whatever time you 15:36 1 need.

2 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Back to you, Mr. Vasquez.

4 MR. VASQUEZ: Thank you, Your Honor. The evidence 5 presented at trial did show that he engaged in prostitution.

6 But, again, the stories of the women were varieties. And I
7 included that information in the sentencing memorandum, Judge, 8 and I don't want to be repetitive to your court.

9 But I'm asking the court to consider a sentence other 10 than life, and I'm asking you to consider significantly less 11 amount of time than what is called for by the guidelines. And 12 my rationale, again, is although there were allegations of 13 violence -- and I understand, again, the sexual assault 14 allegations are violence, and I know you are going to take that 15 into consideration. But I'm asking you to consider a sentence 16 much less than life in these circumstances. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Mr. Nunez.

19 MR. NUNEZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I will be brief, 20 sir.

21 THE COURT: Take your time.

22 MR. NUNEZ: This is the third sex trafficking case 23 that I have been appointed to represent a defendant in federal 24 court. The first one, and it's one that the court is familiar 25 with, the Wiggins case.

15:37 1 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

2 MR. NUNEZ: In that case, there were five male
3 defendants, five female defendants. There was ample evidence 4 that those male defendants were beating, not only the female 5 defendants, but the other victims as well.

6 The beatings included punching them in the face, 7 broken noses, black eyes, busted teeth. There was evidence 8 that the identification cards were taken away from the women, 9 their cell phones, their computers. They were shuttled to and 10 from the place where they were kept confined to the places of 11 employment. There was a female defendant in the strip bars, 12 being kept there so that she could spy on the other victims so 13 that they would not get out of line.

14 In that particular case, the lead defendant got a 15 17-year sentence, Your Honor. The other male defendants, their 16 sentences varied from about 15 to about eight years, I believe.

17 In Mr. Marquez' case, there is no evidence of that 18 type of physical abuse against the women. In the Wiggins case, 19 there was evidence of sexual misconduct. I believe at least 20 two victims stated that they had sex unwillingly with some of 21 the male defendants. The same is true in the Marquez case, 22 Your Honor. There is at least two women, I believe one of them 23 was H.C.P., that said that she did not want to have sex, and 24 was forced to have sex with Mr. Marquez. A fact that 25 Mr. Marquez denies, just as he denies that he engaged in 15:39 1 prostitution.

2           Because in the Wiggins case, Your Honor, there was 3 ample evidence to support acts of violence against the women.
4 Because that defendant only got 17 years, I submit to the court
5 that a sentence less than that is appropriate in Mr. Marquez' 6 case. Thank you.

7           THE COURT: Thank you.

8           Mr. Marquez. Mr. Marquez, if you will feel more 9 comfortable, you can sit down and speak from your seat.

10           THE DEFENDANT: Excuse me. Your Honor, the first 11 thing that I would like to start off with is the fact that 12 Mr. Vasquez brought up right now, which deals with process 13 violation and equal protections of the law, was the way the 14 investigation was conducted. There were -- there was ample 15 opportunity for the agents, as well as the prosecutor, to 16 follow up -- follow up with leads that developed from day one, 17 which would have been August 31 of 2011, was the date that 18 Hermelinda Cordova Perez was arrested for prostitution.

19           The charges against her, of course, were for 20 prostitution. At that time, the record will show was that the 21 government was well aware that she was no longer working for me 22 when she made that outcry of being a sex trafficking victim.
23 And the problem that I have here is that if she wasn't working 24 for me, why would she make the outcry of being a sex 25 trafficking victim if she was working on her own and bringing 15:41 1 me into the picture?

2           The agents supposedly got tips from her that we were 3 operating out of a hotel, at La Quinta on Lomaland, which they 4 did a knock-and-talk. And during that investigation, they had 5 spoken with approximately eight women. Those eight women were 6 interviewed separately and were asked if they were being 7 trafficked -- if they were trafficking victims. One of those 8 victims is in here in the courtroom today, A.R.Q.

9           And the problem that I have here is that one of the 10 girls that was interviewed during the knock-and-talk could not 11 provide any identification. So she was taken in. I believe 12 she had the identification of H.C.P. And H.C.P., like I said, 13 was an individual that was arrested on August 31.

14           The point that I'm trying to make here is that 15 Carolina -- I mean -- Carolina was an individual that was 16 working for me on the day that they did the knock-and-talk, 17 which is on September 1st, I guess hours after the arrest of 18 H.C.P. And what happened was is that she was taken in, I 19 guess, for having false documents, being in the country here 20 illegally. Once she was arrested, taken away from the group, 21 she made an outcry of being a sex trafficking victim, okay.
22 She was given, I guess, the opportunity to stay at a government 23 housing area for victims, and she fled.

24           The agents supposedly were going to go back to talk to 25 the rest of the girls after she made this outcry because, I

15:44 1 guess, they were as baffled as I am why the agents would not 2 follow up on a lead. You know, that's a very important lead.
3 After that day, there were no attempts for the agents at all to 4 follow up on that lead again. Then they were constantly 5 following us. They knew that illegal activity, according to 6 what they are alleging, was taking place, but did nothing to 7 stop the promotion of criminal activity. In other words, they 8 promoted criminal activity from continuing to happen and become 9 greater.

10 At that point, from September 1st, 2011, to December 11 of 2011, there was another incident involving a alleged 12 individual by the name of C.V.C., which a family friend had 13 reported her missing, okay. In that particular situation, she 14 made an outcry also that -- well, not an outcry, but she did 15 state that she had been working for me as a prostitute, and I 16 had taken her to an adult bookstore, okay.

17 And the problem that I'm having trying to comprehend 18 is what do they teach these agents about investigating? The 19 agents had the opportunity to go to that adult bookstore, 20 obtain surveillance video to clarify and verify the allegation 21 of that individual that we were indeed at that establishment at 22 the time that she is alleging.

23 There is no -- there was no evidence introduced to 24 that for whatever reasons that the agents feel that they can 25 circumvent the law and not provide evidence that is critical to 15:46 1 the jury and also here for sentencing purposes to prove that I, 2 indeed, commit the act, that I did take her to this bookstore,

3 and I had participated in a sexual act with her. There is no
4 evidence that they had presented. I have -- of course, by not 5 testifying because of my attorney during trial talking me out 6 of it was not able -- I was not able to produce this testimony 7 that I'm now giving to the court at this time.

8           Jumping from December of 2011, Your Honor, to 9 approximately April, March -- let's go back to March 2012.
10 There was an individual by the initials J.T. Okay, she was an 11 individual that was arrested for prostitution in a sheriff 12 department sting at La Quinta on -- I believe on Viscount. And 13 during this sting, the individual made an outcry that she was a 14 sex trafficking victim. She alleged that she was lured into 15 sex trafficking. And police agents took her statement.

16           And, basically, the problem that I'm having with this 17 particular individual more importantly is that she was a key 18 figure in all of this. She worked with me until the day before 19 I was arrested, Your Honor, June 20, 2012. This incident 20 happened in March of 2012, which would have been approximately 21 three months later. Someone that is alleging being a sex 22 trafficking victim, Your Honor, and being forced to do things 23 against her will, why would she continue working for me? We 24 have records that will show on the ads that I was placing that 25 she was working for me during that time period, plus the 15:48 1 testimony of the women that were working for me during the time

2 period, along with A.Q.

3 A.Q. was another key figure in this case because she 4 was constantly in contact with B.G.G.T. During her -- during 5 her time working for me, like I said, these girls were a 6 fraternity. They all collaborated, corroborated, and did their 7 own thing. These girls were not victims in any way, shape, or 8 form. And I will explain to you why.

9 These girls that are alleging that they are sex 10 trafficking victims was all part of a scheme that was concocted 11 by one or two girls that were working for me, which one of them 12 was my co-defendant, Martha, M.J., the initials. The thing of 13 it is here, Your Honor, is that these women were stealing 14 customers from the service. If they had a fear of me, why 15 would they fear me, but not fear to steal from me? Okay. The 16 evidence on record will show that these girls had customers' 17 phone numbers.

18 There is a young lady that is in court today with the 19 initials of M.R, and she was an individual that I fired for 20 seeing customers outside the service. And in retaliation for 21 having fired her, this is what transpired, was these 22 allegations between her and her husband, which was also a 23 witness, the initials D.S.

24 These individuals, basically, were all escorts prior 25 to coming to work for me. The escort services that they had 15:51 1 worked for was -- one of them was the individual -- was an 2 individual who was arrested a couple of months back by the name

3 of Maria Blake. The young lady that's here in court that did 4 testify in trial, the initials R.O., was working for Maria
5 Blake. She continued to work for Maria Blake after my arrest.
6 These were, of course, all facts that my attorney did not bring 7 up in trial. For deficient purpose -- for because of a 8 deficient performance, his lack of failure to follow 9 investigation procedures and, you know, follow up on the leads 10 that I gave him and also information.

11 Like I said, the initials R.O., she is a -- I guess 12 you can say a veteran at what she is alleging that I did to 13 her. There are confirmation by G.G.T. that R.O. is, indeed, a 14 long-time friend with Carolina, which was arrested in that 15 false documentation arrest on September 1 of 2011. She is a 16 good friend of -- R.O. is a good friend of Carolina. And she 17 was basically referred to me. R.O. stated in trial that she 18 saw the newspaper ad. It was misled by me, okay.

19 And the problem that I'm having here with that is that 20 if she knew Carolina -- Carolina was working for me, and she 21 was arrested for false documentation and fled the country after 22 being considered a trafficking victim, why would she come to 23 work for me if Carolina had made an outcry being a sex 24 trafficking victim? Why would she come to work for me? When 25 she came to work for me, she told me that Carolina had sent 15:54 1 her. And B.G.G.T. verified in trial that they were friends.

2 The next thing is, going back to J.T, J.T., when she 3 was working for me, me and her had a close relationship. And 4 during that relationship, she was caught, I guess, in a storm 5 between agents and myself. She had told me that during the 6 time frame that she was arrested in March of 2012, Your Honor, 7 that she had met with Homeland Security.

8 And if I remember correctly, I think it was Agent
9 Peter Angell. I'm not sure, but I know that she met with Agent 10 Miranda because she described him to me. And, basically, what 11 she was telling me is that they wanted to arrest me, but they 12 needed her to continue working for me to continue, of course, I 13 guess, just keeping an eye on me as to my whereabouts and my 14 activity.

15 And, basically, at that point, A.Q. was brought into 16 the picture approximately two days or the day before. I can't 17 recall exactly. But J.T. told me that A.Q. was coming to the 18 hotel to talk to them about the arrest of B.G.G.T. And what 19 I'm going to do is I'm going to go back through -- back to 20 B.G.G.T., to tell you a little bit about the --

21 MR. NUNEZ: May I have a second with Mr. Marquez?

22 THE COURT: Sure, of course.

23 (Consultation off the record between Mr. Nunez, 24 Mr. Vasquez and Defendant Marquez)

25 THE DEFENDANT: Going back to this B.G.G.T., B.G.G.T.

15:56 1 was my right-hand person at the time of her arrest. B.G.G.T.
2 was arrested in May 2012. And, basically, what transpired
3 there is that agents had received information about B.G.G.T.
4 being in the country illegally by J.T. Agent Miranda, Peter 5 Angell, along with other agents were aware of her illegal 6 status because of J.T., J.T.'s arrest in March of 2012. What 7 happened was is that, in 2011, during the raid at La Quinta, 8 where there were eight women there --

9 THE COURT: Mr. -- I'm aware of --

10 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

11 THE COURT: Every single fact that you pointed out was 12 either directly or indirectly brought up during trial. And as 13 I mentioned previously, we are not here to deal with the 14 evidence. We are not here to deal with guilt or innocence. We 15 are here to deal with --

16 THE DEFENDANT: Mitigation.

17 THE COURT: No, sir. We are here to deal with 18 sentencing, what you have to say on your own behalf that I 19 should consider before I make a decision. That said, 20 Mr. Marquez, your rehashing your discussion of trial evidence 21 does not help me because the jury already found you guilty. So 22 I would suggest to you --

23 THE DEFENDANT: So new information would not mitigate 24 my sentence?

25 THE COURT: That is not new information. You are

15:59 1 calling it new information, but it is not. So what I'm 2 suggesting to you is that discussing facts about what gave rise 3 to the charges the government brought against you at this 4 junction is irrelevant because the jury found you guilty
5 already. The jury found you guilty on seven counts. I set one 6 of them aside, so I'm here to sentence you on six counts.

7           You may argue all day long. You may continue 8 discussing the evidence, and you may continue to insist that, 9 based on all this evidence, you are not guilty; that based on 10 all this evidence, you didn't coerce, that you did not 11 threaten, that you did not intimidate anybody to work with you.
12 And I respect that. You have a right to feel that way. And 13 that is something that you rightfully should bring up before 14 the court of appeals.

15           But that's not what we are here for today. What we 16 are here for today is for me to issue a sentence on each of 17 those counts, predicated on the verdict of the jury. So, yes, 18 I am not shutting you down. You may continue to talk. But it 19 is not going to help you because you haven't brought up 20 anything that I should consider in terms of sentencings.

21           THE DEFENDANT: Can you define then mitigated -- 22 "mitigating evidence" then?

23           THE COURT: "Mitigating evidence," in simple terms for 24 you, is what I was trying to explain earlier about what that 25 testimony of those experts deals with. In other words,

16:01 1 anything that would make me take a different light or look 2 under a different light at the sentencing guidelines, anything 3 that would make me look at these guidelines and say: It should 4 be something less than that. That's a simple way of explaining 5 that to you.

6 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. So, basically, everything that 7 was said and not said in trial would be irrelevant, you are 8 saying, at this point?

9 THE COURT: I'm sorry? Ask me that again, please.

10 THE DEFENDANT: That everything that was said and not 11 said during trial, things that my attorneys didn't bring up, so 12 none of that is going to be considered mitigating evidence?

13 THE COURT: Mr. Marquez.

14 THE DEFENDANT: That is what I'm asking you. It is a 15 simple yes or no.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Marquez, Mr. Marquez, the jury found 17 you guilty. Today, we are here to hear what you have to say, 18 what your lawyers have to say, what the government has to say, 19 what the victims have to say. And then once I take all that 20 in, in addition to everything that I have reviewed thus far, I 21 will make a decision about your sentence, about each of those 22 six counts. That's what we are here for today.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Can you give me just a moment with 24 counsel?

25 (Consultation off the record between Mr. Vasquez, 16:02 1 Mr. Nunez and Defendant Marquez)

2 THE DEFENDANT: Basically, what you have heard before 3 the court today are stories that were presented by people who 4 claim to be victims. No real victims or crime committed, just 5 stories. We are barraged by stories every day, especially 6 overzealous police mentalities. Most are in the news. Most 7 come by the way of media which sensationalizes and twists the 8 reality to give us something to sink our teeth into, something 9 salacious, something scandalous, something shocking, violent or 10 horrible. Sometimes these stories have semblance to the truth, 11 and sometimes they don't.

12 You see, the prosecution's job was to tell a 13 sensational story that will get you to convict someone, along 14 with the agents. That's how they win. That's how they get 15 their convictions. They chalk up a win, an acquittal, a loss.

16 But before this court, we were seeking truth, not 17 presumption of what may or may not have occurred as proposed by 18 the prosecutor and the agents. Remember, no real victims or 19 crime committed. In order for you to find the truth and mete 20 out that justice, you have to realize where the agents and the 21 prosecutors stand. Or do they stand?

22 I am a man here who has been wrongfully brought before 23 this court convicted of just scandalous charges, charges that 24 they weren't able to substantiate and bring actual proof as 25 Mr. Nunez had discussed on other trials.

16:05 1           There was an individual that's in the court by the 2 initials R.O., who during trial had produced a picture of me 3 counting money. Why didn't they -- if I was threatening these 4 girls, why weren't these threats ever recorded? Agents had 5 everything that they could have used against me if the threats 6 were real, pictures and recordings. I am a man who is a real 7 victim here of hidden agendas that the prosecutions and agents 8 have brought before this court. I ask the court, is that fair?

9           Do we just assume that everyone is guilty and lock 10 them up with no real cause, no real investigation, just 11 allegations? Was this in retaliation for something? Maybe. I 12 have been the subject of investigation for the last 15 years 13 with no concrete evidence ever for any law enforcement agency 14 to prove anything, just allegations. These allegations were 15 from paid witnesses, as you have heard. Why is that? People 16 that never requested assistance from the government were given 17 benefits. Why, if they didn't ask for it? And why weren't 18 they arrested, more importantly, if they allege that they were 19 doing something illegal?

20           They were never -- they were never prosecuted. They 21 were never arrested or booked. Just given benefits that the 22 government continues to contend that they never offered any 23 benefit to these individuals. The benefit alone was that they 24 weren't arrested for prostitution.

25           Now, not all the law enforcement -- not all law

16:07 1 enforcement are corrupt or malignant. We all know that. But 2 some are. But some of us all know that there is another side 3 to law enforcement, a vicious mindless beast that wants to 4 punish someone, anyone. This is the very beast that has 5 rallied and that was unleashed against me.

6 I have been incarcerated for over 26 months for 7 something I never did, nor can the law enforcement really prove 8 without asking the court to speculate on their cause against 9 me. Why speculate? I have prayed each day since my 10 imprisonment that the real truth shall be revealed. That day 11 is here.

12 I ask Your Honor to listen to every word carefully and 13 to relate to my grief that I am going through, to remember that 14 anything that the prosecutor says will be clouded by unfettered 15 hatred towards me. It is very easy to point the finger at 16 someone, but to prove it is something else, something that the 17 prosecution -- allegations.

18 Agents in this case failed miserably to be thorough in 19 their findings. The prosecutor, judge, jury, and executioner 20 made the final judgment of who was innocent and who was guilty.
21 Agents failed to collect all proper evidence, if there really 22 was any. Pictures and recordings that, in fact, would have 23 implicated me to their alleged story they presented before this 24 very court back last November.

25 So the jury could have examined it, left it to the 16:10 1 jury to decide, as the judge has said, who was guilty, and not 2 for the prosecutor and agents to ask you to speculate as they 3 did. It was the jury's job to interpret the evidence. As you

4 witnessed, this didn't happen. Why? The jury was denied a 5 proper investigation to evaluate, as well as the defendant. Of 6 course, that's what the agents and prosecutor wanted, because 7 their egos are so inflated. It is what they consider organized 8 criminal activity and absolute immunity.

9 As I understand the law, the due process clause and 10 the equal protection clause are at issue. Should we give the 11 prosecution immunity from that, too? Because of the greed and 12 kudos, agents, as well as the prosecutor, could benefit from 13 this case, they chose to inflate and color their stories.

14 How would anyone else ever know the truth? That's why 15 they are called "allegations." This is the best that they 16 could do for the last 15 years.

17 Agents claim that the witnesses claim they broke the 18 law. If so, why weren't they arrested and charged with a 19 crime, if they had not received any promise of benefit 20 beforehand or asked in exchange for cooperation with this case?
21 That's an excuse for spending taxpayer money to get them to 22 inflate their stories.

23 Not being arrested and charged is already a benefit.
24 Instead of just doing their job and leaving matters to the jury 25 to decide who is guilty and who isn't, it was made clear that 16:11 1 they would do that to secure a victory. Whatever happened to 2 balancing the scales of justice and the equal protection clause

3 of the 14th Amendment, or is there still a Constitution?

4 I ask this court to consider every word carefully, so 5 you will not fall into the same trap that the jury fell into, 6 into deciding what is or what wasn't the real truth about 7 matter at hand. Remember, everything that was said at trial 8 was just a story, no real evidence, just allegations.

9 Doesn't it make people sit up and listen when someone 10 is talking about prostitution? Sure. Even more when you 11 scandalize and sensationalize something people can't verify for 12 themselves. What a sensational story. But remember, it is 13 just a story that's far from the truth.

14 What the jury was not granted was the opportunity to 15 truly be able to decide for themselves was the charge given to 16 them by the court, to define -- to find the defendant guilty if 17 beyond -- if so, beyond reasonable doubt. This meant that a 18 reasonable person would not have a single doubt that the 19 prosecution's story was true. And, as you can see, if you 20 haven't already, is that the story and charges are remarkably 21 doubtful.

22 You have witnessed at trial, and now here today before 23 this court, agents so aggressive and so bent by lies and hatred 24 willing to do whatever they have to to further their careers.
25 Acquittals don't get promotions. You will also find out that 16:14 1 the agents and the prosecutor didn't quite follow the laws 2 written. The law states that, in order for a conviction to 3 stand, the accuser must have complied with law, procedure, and 4 form. The agents in this case, Agent Miranda, first of all,

5 did not have the field experience to qualify as an expert 6 witness. At the date of my arrest, his actions were all 7 questionable if you look at the big picture.

8 The agents, Miranda and Peter Angell, in their 9 investigation were sloppy and erroneous, for lack of better 10 judgment. Or was there? Special Agents Anthony Miranda and 11 Peter Angell, during their investigation, must have had their 12 minds racing with the kudos they could win if they played this 13 right. Let's not forget the prosecutor also, Mr. Newaz. This 14 would further their careers. Or will it?

15 By sounds of things, the prosecutor and agents are 16 very well-versed in the art of witness tampering, bribery, and 17 intimidation. Let's not forget all legal, of course. As you 18 can see their actions were all conspiratorial.

19 In closing, I would like to add that justice is 20 neither a mystery, nor a crap shot, but a major purchase by the 21 prosecution. Spend the taxpayer's money thoughtfully, offer 22 lots of incentives to witnesses, and you will get your 23 convictions. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Newaz.

25 MR. NUNEZ: Your Honor, may I, before Mr. Newaz?

16:16 1 THE COURT: Sure, yes, sir.

2 MR. NUNEZ: Your Honor, I just want to clean up some 3 things that Mr. Marquez says. He did state that he had some 4 people working for him in a service. What he meant by that was 5 that he was -- he had a service that offered companionship, but 6 not a service that offered sex for money.

7 THE COURT: I understand. Like I explained to him 8 previously, I knew the difference between argument and 9 evidence. And he is simply making his argument. And I respect 10 that.

11 MR. NUNEZ: I just don't want the record to be sloppy 12 and somehow someone interpret that he made an admission at his 13 allocution that he was involved with a service that offered sex 14 for money. One -- a couple more things, Your Honor, that I 15 forgot to mention. Mr. Marquez is 54 years old. He has twice 16 been married. He has two children. He does have diabetes. He 17 has an enlarged prostate.

18 Although Mr. Marquez has a strong personality, 19 Your Honor -- and the court has seen it and the prosecutor has 20 seen it. Just because he has a strong personality and just 21 because he wants himself to be heard, Your Honor, I don't 22 believe that merits a life sentence as recommended by the PSR.

23 Respectfully, Judge, I am recommending to the court or 24 suggesting to the court a sentence between 15 to 20 years. If 25 the court imposes such a sentence, Mr. Marquez would probably

16:17 1 serve most of the sentence, and he would be getting out close 2 to the age of 70. I believe a sentence within that range is 3 appropriate, given all of the circumstances involved in this 4 case. Thank you, sir.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Newaz.

6 MR. NEWAZ: I agree with Mr. Nunez in that his 7 personality doesn't warrant a life sentence. However, his 8 actions do. He has been involved in this organization of 9 prostitution, forcing women to get involved, do things they 10 didn't want to do for, by his admission, over two decades. And 11 this law enforcement community of El Paso failed our community 12 in 1999 by giving this man a deferred adjudication on a 13 misdemeanor, when they could have nipped it in the bud then.

14 And my only regret is that it took us 13 years to 15 rectify that problem because this man has been a blight on this 16 society for over a decade. He has brought not only 17 prostitution here, he has wrought pain on the people that have 18 worked for him. And while they may just be stories for 19 Mr. Marquez, they were evidence on the stand.

20 After seven days of trial, the jury took approximately 21 one hour to come back and convict him on every count. And 22 while Mr. Marquez may not see any other victims other than 23 himself in the courtroom today, there are three sitting right 24 there. Whether or not he thinks he harmed anybody is really 25 irrelevant because the citizens of this community saw it

16:19 1 firsthand and came back, and they came back with a strong 2 decision quickly. And that was to send a message, not only to 3 Mr. Marquez, but to the community that this type of behavior 4 would not be tolerated.

5 And the reality is men like Mr. Marquez are actually 6 more dangerous than men like Mr. Wiggins. And I will tell you
7 why. Because men like Mr. Wiggins rely on their physical brute 8 strength to damage and harm people, forcing them -- forcing 9 them to do what they want them to do. Men like the defendant
10 rely on their guile. The reality is, if he comes out at 70 11 years old, considering that he doesn't think he has done a 12 thing wrong, there is going to be nothing stopping him from 13 doing this again: Taking advantage of women who are down on 14 their luck, taking advantage of women who are easily 15 manipulatable, taking advantage of women who are easily 16 frightened because that's what the defendant did.

17 This isn't about prostitution, Your Honor. This is 18 about sex trafficking. This is about a man who took advantage 19 of countless women for his own financial and sexual gain.

20 I was asked many times while we were preparing for the 21 sentencing: Do you think the defendant deserves a life
22 sentence? And I answered every time with a resounding "yes," 23 because the reality is what you have sitting over there is a 24 serial rapist. You have a man that raped women for decades.
25 You have a man that led and facilitated other people to rape

16:20 1 women for his financial gain.

2 And the reality is a person like that deserves no 3 sympathy, deserves no remorse, and deserves to be locked up for 4 the rest of his life, so he can reflect upon what he did. And 5 that's what we would ask you to do in this case, Your Honor, 6 because the reality is this man has no remorse. He has no 7 regard for anybody other than himself. He said it. He said
8 that the only victim in this courtroom is him. He doesn't 9 think he has done a thing wrong. And nothing this court says 10 is going to change his mind. And that should scare everybody 11 in here because the reality is any -- any point in time he's 12 set loose, he is going to do it again.

13 In 1999, after he got that deferred adjudication, what 14 happened? Did he just close up shop, not do it anymore. Did 15 he learn his lesson? No. He got arrested for rape. Frankly, 16 that 2005 rape is really frightening because it mirrors the 17 facts of what happened to the juvenile C.V.C. He took an 18 18-year-old girl in that case to the Venus adult bookstore, had 19 sex with her against her will, because she expressed an 20 interest in working for his escort service.

21 He has been at this for a long time, and he is not 22 going to stop. The only way he is going to stop is if we make 23 him stop. And the court has the power to do that today. The 24 guidelines have said that this man deserves a life sentence.
25 He is quite literally off the charts. He is a level 45, which

16:22 1 doesn't exist. He is off the charts because of the actions
2 that he has taken. He deserves a life sentence on count one 3 and two. He deserves the maximum sentence on the remainder of 4 the counts because he is just not going to stop.

5 This is a type of man that takes advantage of a 6 16-year-old runaway to work as a prostitute, knowing her age.
7 That's the type of man that sits before you today, Your Honor.
8 And what -- does he show remorse? To the contrary. He brags 9 about it in the jail. And I know the court has seen some of 10 the reports from some of the people that share a cell with him, 11 where he was bragging about having sex with a 16-year-old girl.
12 He doesn't feel bad about it. He would do it again in a 13 heartbeat. His only regret is that he got caught.

14 But at the end of the day, my words really ring 15 hollow. The words that should matter are the words of the 16 defendant himself and the words of the victim.

17 We read a lot of text messages throughout the trial.
18 I would just remind the court of one of these exchanges, which 19 was in Exhibit 58 in the government's -- the government's 20 exhibits. The defendant talked about a girl named Kissla who 21 was working again that he had fired. And in a text message 22 exchange with the john, he told the john: Kissla is working 23 again. She filed for amnesty. Laughing my ass off, bitch.
24 Yep, the bitch came down on her knees, laughing my ass on -- 25 off. She will be working until 6:00 a.m. I am going to 16:24 1 decrease the pay also, no American dollars. She will be now 2 paid in pesos, laughing my ass off. I need to test her from 3 behind, ouch, laughing my ass off. Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha.

4 Yes, the bitch said she is willing to give up the back door to 5 come back to work.

6 That's the type of man that sits here. Those are his 7 words. He wants proof beyond testimony. This came from the 8 defendant's phone. These are his text messages. This is what 9 he says to his customers about the people he refers to as his 10 employees that are just working for him. That is how he treats 11 the people who work for him.

12 We heard testimony from countless victims in this 13 case. Irma Garduno told us, testified -- and you can see this 14 in Volume 4 of the record on page 37 -- Mr. Henry stated to -- 15 started to say that we have to behave ourselves and we had to 16 do what the clients wanted. Otherwise, he was not going to be 17 a good person.

18 When asked to clarify that, what did she mean by not 19 going to be a good person, she said, Well, for example, perhaps 20 hurting us or hurting our family.

21 She was cross-examined as to how a college-educated 22 woman could fall into the trap of the defendant. What did he 23 say -- or what did she say? I really think this was the 24 greatest response we heard throughout the trial. Irma 25 Garduno's response was: My level of IQ doesn't determine my 16:25 1 self-esteem.

2           The reality is he preys on women who have different 3 vulnerabilities, and he figures out how to take advantage of 4 them because he is a master manipulator. He has tried to 5 manipulate the court and the government from the beginning, and 6 it has failed. And you can see how angry it has made him 7 throughout the proceedings.

8           Karla Gallardo told us about how she was afraid when 9 federal agents came to testify -- or to come to talk to her, in 10 Volume 4 on page 87, when she was talking about Henry, said she 11 was afraid he may take retaliation against her. Because she 12 listened to the facts that when a girl would behave badly or do 13 something bad, he would send threats to her.

14           When asked to clarify the threats, she said, Well, to 15 leave him alone, for not bothering him because he would put 16 them on the bridge. When asked to clarify what it meant to put 17 them on the bridge, he said -- she said, Because he could call 18 the bridge, and let them know what kind of work they were 19 doing -- we were doing coming over to do and that would 20 essentially lead them to be deported.

21           She also said she was afraid that something would 22 happen to her because the defendant knew her address. There 23 were times when she rented the rooms, had to give her 24 identification, and he kept all the receipts. And she said, 25 You see so many things, and sometimes even though people are

16:27 1 inside a jail, they can still send people to create or do harm
2 to one. When asked to clarify what harm she was referring to,
3 she said, Well, even someone to kill us.

4 That is the type of fear that the defendant instilled
5 in these people. He may not have put his hands on them, but he 6 made them afraid that they were going to get killed or 7 deported. Some harm would come to them if they didn't do what 8 he wanted them to do.

9 Hermelinda Cordova Perez talked about how she tried to 10 leave working for the defendant after the first time she ended 11 up finding out it was prostitution. This is in Volume 3, on 12 page 127. She was asked: What happened when Henry called you 13 again?

14 ANSWER: He told me I had to return to work.

15 QUESTION: Did you resist?

16 ANSWER: Yes.

17 QUESTION: What happened when you resisted?

18 ANSWER: He told me I didn't want to know his bad 19 side.

20 QUESTION: Did he give you any details on what that 21 meant?

22 ANSWER: That he already had information and he had 23 friends in Juarez.

24 Again, he may not have struck these women like Wiggins
25 did, but he sure created a climate of fear to make them think

16:28 1 bad things would happen to them.

2 Page 132 of the record: During the two-year period --

3 QUESTION: During the two-year period that you worked 4 for defendant, did you attempt to quit working for him?

5 Again, Hermelinda Cordova Perez: Yes.

6 How many times?

7 One time.

8 She goes on to describe that when she tried to quit 9 working, he had the co-defendant call her up at her legitimate 10 job in Juarez and inform her that he knew where she worked.

11 He wasn't giving these women just threats on whether 12 or not they were looking for other clients, he made it clear to 13 them that they were going to do what he wanted to do, they were 14 going to work when he wanted them to work, or bad things would 15 happen. He didn't have to put his hands on them. He didn't 16 have to strike them to instill that type of fear.

17 But the reality is he did put his hands on them
18 because he raped several of these women, including Hermelinda 19 Cordova Perez. On page 142 of the record:

20 QUESTION: How soon after you started working for the 21 defendant did he try to have sex with you?

22 ANSWER: A month.

23 QUESTION: What happened on that occasion?

24 ANSWER: It was the end of the day, and he said I had 25 an appointment. When it came time for the appointment,

16:29 1 instead of the client coming in, it was him.

2 QUESTION: When the defendant came in, what happened 3 after that?

4 ANSWER: I asked him where the client was.

5 QUESTION: And what did the defendant say?

6 ANSWER: That he was the client.

7 QUESTION: What did you do when the defendant said he 8 was the client?

9 ANSWER: I told him I wasn't going to have sexual 10 relations with him, and he told me it's been a month, and 11 I had to show him what I learned.

12 QUESTION: What happened after the defendant said 13 that?

14 ANSWER: He took off my clothing and forced me to have 15 sex with him.

16 It was difficult for her to talk to, but we asked for 17 more details, and the defendant -- and Ms. Cordova said: He 18 threw me on the bed, he put a condom on, and he went inside.

19 QUESTION: What did you do when that happened?

20 ANSWER: I cried.

21 QUESTION: How did he react when you cried?

22 ANSWER: He didn't do anything. He just laughed
23 because I was bleeding.

24 But Mr. Marquez doesn't think that was a victim. Just 25 him.

16:30 1           Rosa Aguilar testified, Volume 3, page 85, as to why 2 she would do this type of work. My daughter was little, and I
3 couldn't feed her. I couldn't buy milk. I couldn't pay my 4 rent.

5           That's why they did these things, not because they 6 wanted to. But after she found out about that this was 7 prostitution, that first time, she explained, on page 87 of the 8 record, when she -- all the women had left, and did the 9 defendant say --

10           QUESTION: Did the defendant say anything to you at 11 that point?

12           ANSWER: Yes. He gave me a condom.

13           QUESTION: Did he -- other than giving you a condom, 14 did he say or do anything else?

15           ANSWER: Yes. He told me good luck.

16           But again, Mr. Marquez doesn't think this person is a 17 victim. He just misleads them. He uses fraud to get them into 18 doing what he wants them to do so he can make money. But not 19 victims in Mr. Marquez' mind.

20           Our juvenile C.V.C., Volume 4, page 112 of the record:
21 She testified that it was more like -- more than 15 people a 22 week she had sex with. And I want the court to really think 23 about that, because she was 16 at the time, which means that 24 because of the defendant's actions, 15 or more men a week 25 committed sexual assault of a child unknowingly because he 16:32 1 directed her to lie to these individuals about her age.

2           Ana Quezada, Volume 5, page 30: I would have sexual 3 relations with customers five or six a day. The Tampax would 4 get introduced so deeply a lot. On one occasion, I was in my 5 period, and I had from six to seven clients from about 2:00 in 6 the afternoon to 7:00 p.m. And because it was my lucky day --
7 which if the court remembers was one of the ways the defendant 8 punished his victims -- I didn't have a chance to take out my 9 Tampax and put in another one. And so I had a lot of clients.
10 I didn't have a chance to change my Tampax, and so it dug in 11 very deeply into me, and it started hurting. And he was in the 12 room, and I was there with several of the other girls, and it
13 was hurting me a lot. And the girls all tried to help me 14 remove the Tampax, but they couldn't because it had gotten in 15 too deep. One of the girls started rubbing my belly downward
16 so the Tampax would start coming out. She put some lubricant 17 in my private parts. She put it in her fingers, but she 18 couldn't find the Tampax. For me, by then, it was very 19 painful. They kept rubbing my stomach. One of the girls was 20 rubbing my stomach, while one was putting fingers and couldn't 21 find the Tampax. I got frightened, and I got angry, and I told 22 Henry, if this Tampax doesn't come out, you are going to have 23 to take me to the hospital. You are going to have to pay, and 24 I am going to call the police. And Henry is very tight. He 25 said, Calm down. Everything is going to come out all right.

16:33 1 The Tampax is going to come out all right. Go into the 2 bathroom. Put in a lot of hot water, put some salt, and it
3 will come out. And hurry up because your next client comes in 4 about 20 minutes.

5           These are the stories, the evidence that we heard at 6 trial nine months ago. They are not allegations anymore, like 7 the defendant keeps referring to. He has been found guilty of 8 these offenses. They are not allegations. They are not 9 stories. The jury came back with a very decisive, a very quick 10 verdict. The guidelines are off the charts for the defendant.
11 And the government would ask that the court follow the 12 guidelines and sentence the defendant to life in prison. And, 13 Your Honor, I will have -- we have three victims to come 14 testify at this point.

15           THE COURT: Go ahead. Call them to the witness stand, 16 please.

17           MR. NEWAZ: Your Honor, the first one will be Ana 18 Quezada.

19           THE COURT: Very well. I think the podium will be 20 fine. I misspoke. She can speak from the podium.

21           Just, Ms. Graffos, explain to her sequential 22 interpreting so that she gives you the opportunity to 23 interpret.

24           You can proceed, ma'am. Please state your name first.

25           ANA QUEZADA: (Through interpreter) My name is Ana

16:35 1 Quezada. I am 25 years old. I know Mr. Henry who says that he 2 didn't prostitute any of us.

3 THE INTERPRETER: Who says he didn't prostitute any of 4 us.

5 ANA QUEZADA: (Through interpreter) And what he said 6 was true. The Tampax hurt a lot. And he was sitting in the 7 bed right next to me.

8 Do you remember?

9 THE COURT: Ma'am, you are speaking to me. You don't 10 have to address him or the government lawyers. You are 11 speaking to me. Go ahead, please.

12 ANA QUEZADA: (Through interpreter) Okay. We 13 couldn't take the Tampax out for several hours. He just simply 14 said for them to rub me and to put out a tub of hot water with 15 salts. And for me to -- for it to go out and for me to hurry 16 up because I had an appointment in 15 minutes.

17 Another thing, I had two infections, which are called 18 contagious mollusks because I had an appointment with a 19 homeless individual and with a person that I don't know what he 20 had, but he had a lot of different kind of fungus throughout 21 his body. I got treatment in Juarez, and they were able to 22 remove it through laser.

23 I feel psychologically damaged. I don't need to read 24 this because there are things that stay recorded in your brain, 25 and they are not going to go away.

16:38 1           Also, when I went against what he was saying, he would 2 tell me that next day: Today is your lucky day. And I would 3 get from 9 to 12 appointments. And in those, I had to go back 4 to the doctor in Juarez to get medication because my uterus and 5 my vagina was very inflamed.

6           He said I couldn't leave his employment because 7 nowhere, not at Wal-Mart or McDonald's, were they going to pay 8 me what he was paying me. He always told me I was a piece of 9 meat because I didn't pretend to like the clients. At one time 10 I answered, I don't have to pretend because I don't like them.
11 And he said, You have to pretend. That's your job. You have 12 to tell them that they are big, that you like them, and that 13 you like it.

14           One time, I was at an appointment at Quality Inn on 15 Montana and Geronimo with a cholo who was carrying crystal. I 16 called the girls. And the girls were able to get me out 17 because the guy was totally drugged out. That's all.

18           THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you, ma'am.

19           Your next victim.

20           MR. NEWAZ: Your Honor, the next victim who wanted to 21 speak was Rosa Aguilar.

22           THE INTERPRETER: Thank you, Your Honor.

23           THE COURT: What is your name, ma'am, please?

24           ROSA AGUILAR: (Through interpreter) Rosa Aguilar.

25           THE COURT: And, ma'am, as I told -- as I told the 16:41 1 lady before you, you are speaking to me. You are not speaking

2 to the defendant. You are not speaking to the government. Do 3 you understand?

4 ROSA AGUILAR: (Through interpreter) Yes.

5 THE COURT: Go ahead, please, ma'am.

6 ROSA AGUILAR: (Through interpreter) My name is Rosa
7 Aguilar. I am 23 years old, and I lived in Ciudad Juarez. I 8 worked for Henry during four months. I thought the job was 9 different, but it wasn't that way. He says he is innocent, 10 that we are the guilty ones. And that's not true.

11 I had to have relations with many men. And, also, 12 they would beat me up. They would humiliate me. They would 13 abuse me. I would tell him and he would say, It's not true.
14 That it was part of my job. That I was trash. That I wasn't 15 worth anything. That I have to endure it. That no one was 16 going to hire me because I was illegally in this country.

17 That, in Juarez, there was no future for me. That if 18 I didn't want to do the work, that I had to pay him. There 19 were times when I would answer back, I don't want to work. He 20 would answer, Okay, my love, you are not going to work anymore.
21 This is your last appointment, but I am not going to pay you.

22 One time, I had an appointment --

23 THE INTERPRETER: I need a clarification.

24 ROSA AGUILAR: (through interpreter) -- that was five 25 hours long. The man had a lot of cocaine, beer, pornography.

16:45 1 I told him I didn't want to be with him, but he said I had to 2 pay him that money. So I had to endure five hours with him, 3 enduring pornography, taking drugs, drinking in the morning,
4 when I didn't want to. But I had no other choice.

5 When I told him, I don't want to be here anymore, I 6 don't want to work for you, he said it was okay, it was fine.
7 We were talking about that subject, and he said, You know I 8 have friends in Juarez. Did you know that the person that left 9 my job previously, we burned her car? That I have been in this 10 business 15 years. That the police can't touch me. That you 11 are going to come out on the losing side. That you are a 12 dumbass for leaving all of this. I told him, I don't care.
13 And so I wanted to leave at that point. And he said, Okay, but 14 you are going to pay the consequences.

15 The day I left, in the early morning hours, I arrived 16 on Sunday with my mother. And she said they had picked up my 17 brother. That we had to pay a certain amount by next Sunday.
18 If not, they were going to kill him. And it was all going to 19 be my fault. I decided to come back because I couldn't put 20 together that kind of money in a week.

21 He took his time in answering, but he finally 22 answered, and he said he needed me at the bridge. I returned 23 to work with him. And he said, You see, you can't do anything.
24 And I paid the ransom for my brother. They came to my mother 25 with a video, telling her that I was a prostitute, and that I

16:49 1 was one because I wanted to be one. And they were relaying
2 that they were being sent by El Puercote.

3 They sent me to get beaten up, and they sent some to 4 kill me, but they couldn't. But they destroyed my family, the 5 only thing I had, the only thing that I had left. And it is 6 not fair. He is not going to be able to repair all this 7 damage. He is not going to return my family to me, my mother, 8 my brothers, my daughter, my husband, none of that.

9 I am afraid all the time. I don't want to go out. I 10 am quick to anger. I can't sleep. I am afraid. I don't know 11 what to do. I would like to repair all this, but I can't. I 12 can't do anything. I would like my family to forgive me, to 13 understand me. That all of this is not my fault. I didn't 14 want to. The needs that are in Juarez are very great. It is 15 not easy. That's all.

16 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

17 Mr. Newaz.

18 MR. NEWAZ: Finally, Mirtha Reyes, Your Honor.

19 THE INTERPRETER: Your Honor, she will be speaking in 20 English, but she said if she gets lost, she is going to -- so I 21 will remain.

22 THE COURT: Very well.

23 MIRTHA REYES: Okay, I wrote this. I was affected -- 24 and the question is how I was affected. I was affected 25 mentally and psychologically. Going to prostitution, it is a

16:52 1 very self-destroying position. I feel mentally degraded and 2 lost all my self-esteem.

3 And if I wasn't feeling bad enough having -- going 4 through all that, having Henry constantly harassing me until he 5 sexually assaulted me, this was my breaking point and trauma 6 that will mark me for life. I feel forced and humiliated. He 7 took advantage of me in a vulnerable position. He knew I was 8 going -- I wasn't going to tell on him, due to his prior 9 threats against my life and safety.

10 After he sexually took advantage of me, I felt dirty 11 and disgusted. Even when I took baths three to four times a 12 day, I still felt dirty. And when I realized that my dirtiness 13 wasn't going to go away because of my -- because it was 14 mentally, I constantly found myself crying on the floor on my 15 bathtub. I could not even kiss my kids good night or touch 16 them due to me thinking that he probably had infected me with a 17 disease.

18 I remember the feeling after I stopped answering 19 Henry's phone calls. I was frightened. I couldn't stop -- I 20 couldn't sleep. My nights and days were restless thinking he 21 was going to knock on my door. I had to move to a different 22 apartment, changing my phone numbers and cutting communication 23 with the rest of the girls. I felt a little safe there. My 24 fears didn't go away until I saw the news that he was arrested 25 for sex trafficking.

16:54 1 I am going to share with you something that I used to 2 do when I was working for you, while being used by you and 3 other males. I will close my eyes for the longest time. I 4 could hold on to thinking to myself it was already past an 5 hour. And when I said an hour, most of those dates, that's 6 what I lost, an hour. But seldom was it just ten minutes, ten 7 minutes traumatizing by undesired males. Painfully powerful 8 minutes, they marked me for life.

9 Now, time to time, I find myself looking at the clock
10 and seeing that the time flies faster. I dare you to do it 11 while you are sitting in jail, sitting down and close your 12 eyes. Don't feel. Don't talk. Numb yourself to what's 13 happening around you. And when you open your eyes, wishing 14 that -- that time has been done, and it was just ten minutes, I 15 hope you feel my pain, which in time will move faster.

16 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

17 MR. NEWAZ: Your Honor, the only other thing the 18 government would ask, if there is a forfeiture issue in this 19 case, and I believe that was stipulated to at trial, I will 20 just ask that the court make a ruling on that.

21 THE COURT: Yes, we will include that in the judgment.

22 I find that considering the 18 USC 3553(a) factors, I 23 would reach the same sentence that I am going to issue at this 24 time, irrespective of the sentencing guidelines.

25 Mr. Marquez, on count one of the indictment, I

16:56 1 sentence you to life imprisonment. On count two of the 2 indictment, I sentence you to life imprisonment. On count four 3 of the indictment, I sentence you to 120 months imprisonment.
4 On count seven of the indictment, I sentence you to 120 months
5 imprisonment. On count five of the indictment, I sentence you
6 to 240 months imprisonment. On count six of the indictment, I
7 sentence you to 60 months of imprisonment. All to run 8 consecutively.

9 On the supervised release, on counts one, two, four 10 and five, should you ever be released for whatever reason, you 11 are going to be on supervised release for the remaining of your 12 life. And on counts six and seven, three years to run 13 concurrently.

14 I am imposing a $10,000 fine, which is below the 15 sentencing guidelines range because I find that there are very 16 limited resources from which to pay any fine that may be 17 assessed against this defendant.

18 On the special assessment, I sentence you -- I impose 19 the mandatory special assessment of $100 per count, for a total 20 of $600.

21 Mr. Vasquez, Mr. Nunez, I am going to order you be 22 appointed as appellate counsel. And, of course, should he 23 decide not to have your services as appellate counsel, he will 24 be free to take that up with the court of appeals. I am going 25 to sign the judgment on this case tomorrow.

16:57 1           During your term of supervised release, again, should 2           you ever be released from custody, you are going to be required 3           to register as a sex offender and comply with the mandatory and 4           standard conditions in place at the time of your release.

5           I wish you well, sir. We are adjourned.

6                           * * * * *

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

I N D E X

	PAGE
ORAL MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE	2
OBJECTIONS OVERRULED	13
GUIDELINES STATED	13
ALLOCUTION:
BY MR. VASQUEZ	16
BY MR. NUNEZ	20
BY THE DEFENDANT	22
BY MR. NUNEZ	38
BY MR. NEWAZ	39
VICTIM STATEMENTS:
ANA QUEZADA	50
ROSA AGUILAR	52
MIRTHA REYES	55
SENTENCE PRONOUNCED	57

C E R T I F I C A T E

I certify that the foregoing is a correct transcript from the record of proceedings in the above-entitled matter. I further certify that the transcript fees and format comply with those prescribed by the Court and the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Signature: /s/Nalene Benavides Date: October 21, 2014
 Nalene Benavides, RMR, CRR